Snohomish, WA May 28, 2015 – Today Christine Schuster Khemis, MBA, CLTC announces the availability of Christine Khemis as a speaker on the topic of long-term care funding. Khemis is prepared to address any group on how to cover the care expenses most longer-living Americans will incur at some point.

Christine Schuster Khemis, MBA, CLTC is one of America's largest and most experienced insurance agencies specializing in long-term care financing through a variety of means including but not limited to long-term care insurance.

What are the odds of needing long-term care some day? How much does it cost? And how can you pay for it when government programs fall short or don't apply in your case? These questions will be answered by Khemis, a long-term care funding specialist with extensive training and experience.

Events planners in WA or anywhere in America may request a talk by Khemis or a fellow specialist Khemis recommends. "Any organization may request a speech, question-answer session, or workshop," says Khemis.
